LEST WE FORGET

November 2025

What are you looking forward to?

Summer has passed, autumn drawing in and winter on the horizon, and then 2026 will soon be upon us. I know, it's scary. So, what lies ahead?

Is it remembering those who have fought in wars? At Remembrance Day on 11th November or at church services on 9th November? A solemn occasion, yet inspiring to recall the effort and personal sacrifice made by others for our sake. There are still soldiers doing this today, so we can be grateful for the peace and security we have while not forgetting places of desperate conflict in our world today.

Is it Christmas? Nativity plays, decorations, planning for festive family gatherings, holiday time for children, carol singing and baby Jesus. What do you look forward too at Christmas?

In the church we look forward to celebrating the birth of Jesus; we call the weeks leading up to Christmas Day, Advent, (Before the event). We remember each Sunday the stories found in the Bible which foretell the coming of Jesus, told through the Prophets, thousands of years ago. We remember Mary and Joseph and their perilous journey to Bethlehem for their baby's birth.

Isn't it incredible that more than 2,000 years later, so many of us remember and look forward to the birth of Jesus? I guess it's because he was such an amazing person and he started a movement which changed the world. Change, starting with each individual person joining in. Did you know that you can join in too?

News from St Bartholomew's

The Quiz Night was fantastic, as always! You missed a treat - but there will be another one in the New Year, so put it in your diaries as soon as you see it! You are GUARANTEED a laughter-filled evening. A big thank you to Sarah and Andy: although we were few, we really enjoyed the whole thing.

The Brownies came and planted lots of bulbs last month, so be prepared to be amazed at the beauty of the churchyard next spring. The native hedgerow at the back of the churchyard should be going in this month, and we very much hope that it will form part of a "Wildlife corridor". Your invitation to help with this is on page 19, with more details. We are thinking about more swift boxes, too - I watched a programme about a street in Leeds where almost every house has swift boxes, and they have a massive colony nesting there every spring. The birds are there for about 100 days, then they are off, staying airborne until they come back for another breeding season, which is astonishing! So if you feel the urge to look up, make and donate a swift box, do not stifle it, it will have a good home. <https://www.rspb.org.uk/helping-nature/what-you-can-do/activities/create-a-high-home-for-swifts>

We are coming into the season of Remembrance, and warmly invite you to any of the services around the benefice - details are on the centre pages, as always. Here at St Bartholomew's, we have a "Church Parade" where the youngsters of the Uniformed Organisations present their colours, and take part in the service, which is always very good to see; the younger generations Will Not Forget the sacrifices made on our behalf. We also have the Last Post and Reveille played and recorded for us by a member of our congregation, an ex-serviceman, which is always very moving. We also pay tribute to our War Grave with a small but heartfelt ceremony at the graveside. You would be most welcome.

And then we turn our attention to Christmas - we have a variety of services planned, but I especially recommend our Christmas Eve Crib Service. It is in the afternoon, and adults and children alike dress up as their favourite character in the Nativity story. It is informal, usually slightly chaotic, enormous fun, and absolutely beautiful.

Doynton Parish Pump

Barbara Kent writes: What has happened to community spirit? It is on the decline, as shown by the very poor support for the barn dance proposed to raise funds for the community orchard and Summers Field, where ticket sales were too low to make the event viable, let alone productive, and led to its cancellation. [Playing Field quiz scheduled for 15 November has also been cancelled – Ed.] Life in Doynton benefits from its facilities – the playing field and children's play area, the village hall, Summers Field and the community orchard and the Church. All of these are kept solvent and run by volunteers, and offers to join the committees are welcome and necessary. They should not be taken, thoughtlessly, for granted. Spirits are available at the much regarded Cross House: community spirit is less visible. Think about it. Take part. Don't just live in the village.

Doynton Playing Field: the fund-raising event on Saturday November 15th is cancelled: a date for an event in Spring/Summer 2026 will be advised in due course.

Holy Trinity church: the heating in our church has broken down and the Parochial Church Council has decided to replace it with a more ecofriendly electric system. After much deliberation, advice and visiting churches that had examples of the system we were considering, we have chosen to go ahead with the "halo heating" system [How appropriate – Ed.]. This takes the form of rings of heaters suspended from the roof, and should heat up the church in just one hour. We would need up to six heaters through the centre of the church. If you would like to know more, talk to Ben Stokes, Sue Roe, Lorna Grey, Chris Sherman or Elizabeth Copping.

Doynton Village Market: November 1st and 15th (NB no market 29th) and December 6th, 10.00–11.00 a.m. in the village hall. Home-made crafts, home grown local veg, fruit, plants and flowers. Home baked cakes, desserts, savoury pies, sausage rolls including gluten-free and dairy-free produce. Jams, chutneys and pickles from our bumper harvests this year, local apple juice and eggs, fresh meat, heritage pork and sausages. (Sadly, we are again unable to order Christmas turkeys this year.) Also available at the market: greetings cards, children's clothes, blankets and adults' scarves and gloves, "tranquillity" soy wax melting bars, felt animal families, seasonal decorations, paintings and illustrations. Light refreshments served throughout the market – coffee/tea and cakes/biscuits. Please come along to stock up your larders and prepare for Christmas, then sit down with refreshments, chat and relax. Tel/message: 07711 670704, Facebook : "Doynton Village Market" To order goods, please tel./message before midday on the Wednesday before the market. Hope to see you there!

LOTS of stalls: cakes, bottles, chocolate, bric-a-brac, toys, raffle
and refreshments

Come and do some Christmas shopping!

Doynton and Wick WI: a treat for murder mystery lovers in October, when retired detective Rob Jones presented members with a murder case to solve. A young mother has been savagely killed, but her estranged husband, the main suspect, has a solid alibi: what can the police do? Members made good use of all those evenings spent watching Inspector Morse, and in the end the police got their man. The November meeting is the AGM when the new President and committee will be elected, with home-grown games to follow. Our meeting is at Doynton village hall on Wednesday November 5th, 7.30 p.m.

The Memory Café at Doynton will meet on Thursday November 6th, 2-4 p.m., at Doynton village hall, for indoor games and bingo. Anyone living with dementia or memory loss is welcome to attend with a family member or carer. The cafe is free to attend, thanks to the generous support of local parish councils, organizations and individuals. Thanks also to our dedicated volunteers! You can find us on Facebook "The Memory Cafe at Doynton" or text us on 07817 311001.

Doynton Parish Council will meet in the village hall on Tuesday November 18th, 7.00 p.m. – all welcome.

Don't forget the Warm Wednesdays community café in the village hall, every week between 10.30 a.m. and 12 noon. Colder weather is coming soon, you will need that hot chocolate!

There's still time to collect seeds etc. for the next seed swap and plant sale, which will take place on March 14th 2026 in Doynton village hall. The event will include not just seeds, but also seedlings, bulbs, tubers, flowers, herbs, etc., as well as garden equipment for you to take in exchange for a donation to charity (tools/garden equipment, garden ornaments, ceramic pots or plastic pots (large ones only) gardening books, magazines, bird tables, bird houses or feeders, hanging baskets, etc. All in good working order please). Please save your seeds and unused/partially used seed packets and pot up spare plants and seedlings over the next few months.

Planting day at St Bartholomew's church

The date for this is now confirmed as Saturday 8th November. We'll get together around 10.00, have a cuppa tea and a discussion, and then get stuck in! You are warmly invited to join in the efforts: wear stout boots, and please bring your own spade and/or trowel. Hopefully, we will be done by lunchtime, if enough people arrive. (Might be an idea to bring a packed lunch, though, just in case!)

I would very much like to acknowledge all the volunteer support this project has had, and have in mind a board, like you see at beauty spots or monuments, outlining the plan, hopes for the future, what to spot in the new hedgerow, the support we've had from the local authorities and volunteers etc. Any info, ideas or help you could suggest towards this would be very gratefully received.

For more information about native hedgerows, see the Woodland Trust website:

MacMillan Coffee Morning

The news reached us too late for last month's edition, but Ruth Alvis and her team were very pleased to discover that they had raised £1056!

This was the best result they've ever achieved, so well done everyone, and a big Thank You to all involved!

Women's Institute

For our October meeting Richard Rickitt, one of the UK's best-known beekeepers and co-editor of BeeCraft magazine, captivated members from start to finish with his fascinating talk on gardening for Bees. His informative talk made us think about how we can help save the bee species by creating a pollinator oasis in our gardens or window boxes and planting blue and purple species of flowers to attract bees. Early snowdrops, mahonia, hellebores and crocuses are a good nectar spring source for queen bees to establish a nest. Richard highlighted that our bee pollinators are in peril; bumblebees, solitary bees and honeybees are all under threat from the modern-day onslaught of pesticides, habitat loss, and intensive agriculture. Yet between them, the almost 300-species of UK bee, along with other pollinators, are responsible for more than a third of everything we eat. The infiltration of imported fake honey has impacted the decline of UK beekeeping and the bee population due to fewer hives being financially viable to maintain. As individuals we can make a difference; letting some areas grow wild, buying locally sourced honey and asking our local councils to grow more bee friendly plants and trees. News from the Chapel

We celebrated Harvest Thanksgiving on 5th October. During the service we sang the good old harvest hymns accompanied by Peter Blackwood on the piano and sang from a hymn book. It was a refreshing change. The service was followed by seasonal refreshments.

Our Remembrance service will be held on Sunday 9th November at 10.30. We will remember those from our villages who lost their lives in the great wars when we lay a wreath on the War Memorial. Please join us as we must never forget the great sacrifice made by so many.

The third Sunday of each month is called a Family Sharing Sunday. Linda usually leads this service which is always relevant to events happening at that moment in time. The service lasts for half an hour and then we join for refreshments in the schoolroom. Please come along and see what you think.

We have booked a stall at the FOWV event on 21st November. See you there!

The next date in our diary is the Christmas Sale on Saturday 29th November from 2.30 pm. Stalls will include cakes, bottles, chocolate, bric-a-brac, toys, books and jigsaws, raffle and refreshments. This is our main fundraiser and your support, as always, is much appreciated.

Our next expense will be the removal of asbestos from the boiler house, a fence at the top of the slope to the ditch at the bottom of the garden as the soil is eroding and external repairs/painting to the large window in the sanctuary. The jobs never stop!

Hope to see you at one of our events.

The Memory Cafe at Doynton

At our October cafe we enjoyed the young voices of the choir of Emerson's Green Primary School who performed beautifully for us and enabled us to join in with an uplifting song to finish their performance. Thank you so much to the pupils and teachers who made this possible.

We also celebrated Harvest and the bounty and colours of Autumn and our visitors all went home with a little pot of honey prepared for them by a family member of one of our regular visitors.

On Thursday 6th November we will enjoy a few games of Bingo, some other games and puzzles, wordsearch, art and craft and some singing too - a quieter cafe but giving everyone the chance to talk and mingle. We will have our fiction lending library available, our own Christmas cards on sale and occasion cards made by U3A members at a bargain price.

Our December cafe will have a festive theme reflected in food, singing and arts and crafts and of course the performance by The Strummers Ukelele band. The date is Thursday 4th December and will mark the end of a busy year at The Memory Cafe.

Plans are of course underway for our cafes next year and as ever we are thankful for the support of so many in our community who support us in different ways and keep us going!

If you would like to know more please see our Facebook page, email us at mcdoynton@gmail.com or text Clare on 07817 311001, we will be pleased to hear from you.'

Wick Football Club

Whilst the first team have yet to find their form of last year, it is encouraging to see the improvement over the last few games. The lads would appreciate as much support as it can get, so let's drum up as much village support as we can. Meanwhile the reserves, vets and Sunday sides are all flying, so more silverware is expected this season.

If you fancy watching a game, the clubhouse is open from 1pm on match-days selling hot/cold drinks, rolls and hot Cornish pasties. Wick training sessions throughout the season are held on Wednesday evenings, if you interested in joining the club, please email wickfc@hotmail.co.uk.

Sponsoring Wick FC is a fantastic way of contributing and supporting sport in our community and makes a visible difference as every penny of sponsor money is reinvested in football equipment and facilities for the club. If you would like details of all our sponsorship packages, please contact Matt Davis on 07977 510352.

New Assistant Linesman Needed – This season, the club will be looking for an assistant linesman for all first team games. There generally is around thirty games a season, this is a paid role and if you are interested, please contact Matt Davis on 07977 510352.

Therefore no matter what the weather spectators including the less able, have a safe pitch-side access to watch games, after which a warm welcoming clubhouse awaits. Our last Friday in the month social opening evenings have proved a great success, so if you haven't been why not pop along and see for yourself. WSG welcomes all offers of help and support.

How to be a wildlife hero?

Grow UK wildflowers in your garden. They are super-powered plants. They are perfect for the UK climate. They are tough, easy to care for and do not require rich soil.

Annuals grow quickly from seed, flower brilliantly, produce new seeds and then die, all in one year.

1 Common poppy [red]

2 Cornflower [blue]

Perennials last for years.

3 Oxeye daisy [white/yellow]

4 Red campion [deep pink]

5 Bird's-foot-trefoil [yellow]

6 Common knapweed [purple/pink]

7 Primrose [pale yellow]

8 Cowslip [deep yellow]

Biennials flower in the second year, then die

9 Foxglove [purple]

10 Viper's-buglos [blue/purple]

Be heroic in 2026.

Walter Wildflower
